

DTU first results today

statesman news service

NEW DELHI, 4 JULY: Delhi Technological University will publish the results of its first round of on-line counseling tomorrow.

All admissions to B Tech programmes of Delhi Technical University (DTU), formerly known as Delhi College of Engineering (DCE), are being made through online counseling in collaboration with National Information Centre. Under this system, 10,827 candidates were registered for online counseling during the registration process from 7 June till 15 June and 9,899 candidates filled their choices from 23 to 29 June 2011 for the 15 undergraduate programmes at DTU. The first list of admission is expected to come out tomorrow at 2:30 pm. The selected candidates will be required to report for admission at DTU from 6 July 2011 as per the schedule available on the website of DTU.

"We are committed to maintain transparency in admission process and shall uphold merit based admission through online system," said the chairman, B Tech admissions, Prof O P Verma.