

DU to provide web-chat service from tomorrow

Staff Reporter

NEW DELHI: Delhi University's Dean of Students' Welfare will provide web-chat service on the university website from June 3 onwards. The service will be a real time interactive question-answer session where students can pose questions related to admissions in various undergraduate courses which will be addressed by experts.

The facility will be available only on select days from 3-30 p.m. to 4 p.m. The link will be active on DU website <http://www.du.ac.in>

Dean of Students' Welfare Prof J.M. Khurana will be available for web-chat on June 3 and Deen Dayal Upadhyaya College Principal Dr. S.K. Garg will take questions on June 6. Faculty of Education for B. El. Ed and B. Ed. will be available for web-chat on June 8 while on June 10 English Department Head Prof. Sumanyu Satpathy will host the web-chat.

The DU web-chat module has been developed by DU Computer Centre. The text version of chats will also be available on the website for reference.

Information is available through other modes such as press releases, telephone help lines, DU community radio, Facebook, email, open days and E-open day.