

One day National conference on Managing Learning and Knowledge Resources was organized on 16th May 2015 in association with Asian Library Association. The conference was marked by lively talks, passionate presentations and subtle arguments and counter arguments. Senior and young stalwarts from the field of library and information science grappled with issues and offered wide ranging opinions and views. It witnessed Inaugural session, 4 technical sessions and a scheduled valedictory. There were about 100 participants, 18 Invited Speakers and 5 Participant Speakers from different parts of the country.

Technical sessions on “Organizational Strategies and Resource Development” “Collaboration for Knowledge & Learning Resources” “Management of Knowledge & Learning Resources” were chaired by eminent personalities of library professions.

