

In continuation of library efforts to make the users aware about the various useful electronic databases being subscribed The Central Library organized a workshop on ProQuest Dissertations and Theses on 10th June 2015 which is a full Text world's most comprehensive collection of dissertations and theses.

