PREFACE

The Central Library of Delhi Technological University (DTU) is pleased to present the June 2026 edition of Adiecta Nova, a monthly bulletin dedicated to showcasing newly acquired resources and highlighting key library initiatives.

Adiecta Nova serves as an important communication platform between the Central Library and the DTU academic community. Through this bulletin, we aim to keep faculty members, researchers, and students informed about the latest additions to our collection across diverse disciplines, enabling them to discover valuable resources that support teaching, learning, and research.

The Central Library remains committed to continuously enriching its collection in response to the evolving academic and research needs of the University. By regularly expanding our holdings and ensuring access to high-quality information resources, we strive to strengthen the teaching-learning and research ecosystem at DTU.

We hope that this edition of Adiecta Nova will encourage greater utilization of the Library's resources and inspire members of the DTU community to explore, learn, and excel in their academic and research pursuits.
