1. INTRODUCTION :

Delhi College of Engineering which provides instruction for the undergraduate and post-graduate courses of the University of Delhi in Electrical/Electronics & Communication/Civil/Mechanical/Production & Industrial Engineering disciplines and post-graduate courses in Applied Physics and Polymer Technology has had a very chequered history of more than 45 years.

Starting in 1941 as Delhi Polytechnic, it has pioneered many important projects in technical education and through this process has steadily grown to its present position as a premier Engineering College in the country.

The educational philosophy of the institution is based on the realization that in this mechanised age, man must not only use technology increasingly as aid to living, but he must also cultivate the sensitivity to appreciate spiritual, moral and aesthetic values so as to make his life fuller and richer. Conceptual skills are much more important than technical skills and human relations have a precedence over handling machines. Therefore, the curricular and co-curricular activities have been so designed that they include a fair share of sciences, technology, arts and humanities.

Although in educational matters, it takes a long time to achieve the objectives, yet it is a matter of great satisfaction that the alumni of this institution have more than justified our aspirations by their professional competence and their good citizenship. With its crop of more talented young students than ordinarily found in an educational institution, each batch of students have established a standard over which the successive groups have consistently improved with the result that out of over 8000 students that have passed out so far from this institution in various professional fields, many are occupying high positions of responsibility and distinction in Industry, Government, Defence, Education and Research Organisations, both within the country and abroad.

2. COURSES OF STUDY :

The Institution admits students to the following courses of the University of Delhi :—

2.1 DEPARTMENT OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING AND ELECTRONICS & COMMUNICATION ENGINEERING

The ever increasing demand for electric energy, faster and novel means of audio and video communication systems, and the increasing use of effective control systems and the automation in industry etc. have made the electrical engineer an indispensable member of the modern society. Under the worsening energy crisis the role of an electrical engineer comprises the design and development of more efficient electrical machinery, power systems, control equipment and systems. With ever-increasing tempo of events throughout the world it has become essential to have more efficient communication network with the latest electronic devices and circuits.

Besides giving a thorough grounding in basic sciences and engineering subjects, the curriculum in Electrical Engineering lays emphasis on deep understanding of electrical and electronic networks and devices, electro-magnetic field theory, computer fundamentals, electrical energy converters and electrical energy distribution systems, including their protection and communication and control systems etc.

With a team of well-qualified teachers, the Department runs both U.G. and P.G. Programmes. The U.G. Programme offers degrees in : (i) Electrical Engineering (Power) with electives in the areas of Power Systems, High Voltage Engineering, Electrical Machines and Drives, Illumination Engineering, Control Engineering, Nuclear Engineering etc ; and (ii) Electronics and Communication Engineering with electives in Computers, Communication Systems, Microelectronics, Radar and Television Engineering etc.

Besides the basic and engineering sciences, the curriculum in Civil Engineering lays emphasis on design of structures, communications, irrigation, environmental engineering and hydraulics.

The Department runs both under-graduate and post-graduate programmes as detailed below. The Under-graduate curriculum is broad-based and designed to introduce the students to a wide range of problems encountered by civil engineers. Electives and independently conducted projects in the final year enable the students to develop additional depth in areas of special interest to them. Survey Camp and Practical Training, which are part of the curriculum, aim at exposing the students to actual field problems.

The Post-graduate curriculum prepares the students for design-oriented programmes with emphasis on practical problems. The part-time course is intended for persons employed in the industrial sector so as to improve their sphere of activities in their own organisations. These students have also to undertake a research programme, the problems for which are taken from the day to day requirements of the industry and design organisations besides taking part in the seminars organised by the Department.

The Department is well-equipped with laboratories related to Structures, Concrete Testing, Soil Mechanics, Highway Engineering, Experimental Stress Analysis, Public Health Engg. and Hydraulics.

4.1.7 INSTRUCTIONS TO THE APPLICANTS OF B.E. COURSE FOR FILLING APPLICATION FORM.

General :

- (i) Read the entire instructions carefully before filling the form. For filling Summary Card read the instructions given on the Card.
 - (iii) Use block letters only in filling the application form.
 - (iii) Complete all columns.
- Your application is liable to be rejected, if any of the items is unfilled or incomplete.
- (iv) Wherever boxes are provided, entries are to be made in the boxes.
 - (v) Avoid over writing & crossing.

The instructions are given item-wise as given in the Application Form.

1. Write your full name as given in School/College records. Write complete postal address with Pin Code.

2. (a) As already stated, the criterion for deciding the eligibility of an applicant to a seat reserved for a region is the location of School/College from which the candidate has passed the examination on the basis of which he/she is seeking admission. Based on the location and reservation if any, identify the appropriate two letter code (Example DG, DC, etc.) given in the 3rd column of the table listed under clause 4.1.6. Write the code properly. See also item 4 below :

- (b) Write R.A. if the results of the qualifying examination are still awaited. (Read also 4.1.8)
 - (c) Physically handicapped candidates must write HANDICAPPED in the box provided and also encircle the two letter code item 2(a) with RED INK.
3. (a) Tick the appropriate box.
- (b) Indicate the Religion.
 - (c) Indicate the Nationality.

4. Write the name of the examination on the basis of which you are seeking admission. In case you have passed more than one examination listed under clause 4.1.1, you may select the better of the two results.

5. Write the name of the Board/University which conducted the examination stated at 4.

6. Write the name of the State or Union Territory where the School/College from which you passed the examination at 4 is located.

7. (a), (b) & (c) You should note that you are not required to submit any copy of the marksheet etc.

You should calculate the percentage of marks secured in Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics, correctly rounded to two decimal places.

Some Boards/Universities conduct the Examination listed at item 4 above in Parts and the total marks of the Part I, Part II etc. are considered for the classification of the result. In such a case, use only those marks on the basis of which the Board/University classifies the result and awards the Division, for filling item 7 a, b, c, d and e.

In case where the practical marks are given separately and they are counted towards the aggregate by the Board/University, combine the theory and practical marks and then calculate the percentage. The application is liable to be rejected if there is any error.

Candidates applying for seat in categories (ii) & (iii) should note that if the result of the qualifying examination is not yet available, they should leave the item blank.

(d) PCM percentage is calculated upto two decimal places by adding the marks a, b and c as above and dividing the total by 3.

(e) Aggregate percentage means the total which is considered by the Board/University for the purposes of classification of the result. In case the Board/University does not declare the aggregate marks, the total of the marks obtained by him/her in Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics and English will be treated as aggregate marks. However, if English is not taken as a subject, marks secured in any other language will be considered instead.

8. Tick the appropriate box.

9. (a) Write the date of birth as in your school record.

(b) If you are under-age, indicate the extent of shortage in months and days in the boxes provided. Shortage is to be calculated in terms of 17 years on 1st October, 1988.

10. According to admission requirements, a candidate must have studied and passed English as a subject at X class or XII class level. In case you have passed in English at both the levels indicate the higher class in box.

However, if the candidate desires to continue in the branch allotted at the time of admission, he/she should so confirm in writing to the Deputy Administrative Officer within three days of his/her admission under receipt. Any such request made afterwards will not be considered.

Since the admission to BE Courses at DCE and DIT are being done together, the transfer of branches on the basis of preference may involve the change of institution DCE to DIT or Vice Versa. The students on rolls on 16.8.88 will continue to remain in the same institution. Any upgradation later will be confined to the branches in that institution only.

12. If you are a candidate for M.B.B.S. entrance examination of the University of Delhi, indicate your Roll number. This information is sought for statistical purpose and in no way affects your candidature.

 EXAMINATION WITH MARKS PERCENT IN PHYSICS
CHEMISTRY.....MATHEMATICS.....
 PCM.....AGGREGATE.....

(Note : All marks should be in per cent rounded upto two decimal places)

(Full name of the candidate as given in the application form)

Note : These results will be considered while preparing any admission list subsequent to the receipt of such communication provided the telegram is received atleast one day before the date of publication of the merit list. (Please see the time schedule in Section 4.1.10). Results received after 29-7-88 will not be considered at all. Please note that it will not be possible for the College to connect up the results unless the telegram is in the above format. The College will also not be responsible for any postal delay.

LAST DATE FOR RECEIPT OF COMPLETED APPLICATION FORMS IS 27-6-88 FOR CANDIDATES FROM DELHI (DC, DG, DT) AND 11-7-88 FOR ALL OTHER CANDIDATES.

In each quota the applications will be arranged according to merit on the basis of PCM percentage given by the candidate. If more than one candidate has the same PCM percentage, the aggregate percentage of marks will become the deciding factor. In case the aggregate percentages also happen to be the same, seniority in age will be the criterion for higher merit.

The merit lists will be put up on the notice board as per schedule given in section 4.1.10. Candidates are advised in their own interest to look up the notice board. Individual communications may be sent to the candidates from outside Delhi only, as a matter of courtesy.

Past experience shows that some of the selected candidates do not report for admission. Therefore, it has been decided to call every time candidates more in number than the seats available.

In the case of candidates from outside Delhi, letters will be sent on 3-8-88 to those candidates likely to be considered for admission subsequently. Only those candidates whose reply to such a letter indicating their interest is received by 17-8-88 will be called for admission in the subsequent lists, if any.

Admission will be made strictly in order of merit from amongst the candidates present in response to our call. In case more candidates than the number of seats available in that quota, report for admission, the remaining candidates will be placed in the waiting list (except for the final merit list) after they pay the fees, etc. The wait-listed candidates will be offered seats in order of merit as soon as vacancies arise. The fees deposited by the remaining candidates who are not offered seats before the close of admissions, will be refunded in full in due course of time.

4. Educational tours to factories, mills, workshops and other places of interest are arranged periodically and Government also contributes to some extent towards the travelling expenses of the students. As these tours are of great educational value, it is compulsory for every student to undertake them according to the programme fixed by the institution. On return, a comprehensive report on the tour is to be submitted by the student, which will be evaluated like other class work and will be counted as part of the year's work.

5. Disciplinary action will be taken against any student using unfair means in examination/tests.

6. The good name of the institution depends on students and their conduct in class-rooms, play field, functions, hostels and in public places. If any student falls short of gentlemen's code of conduct anywhere, the Principal will enforce discipline by imposing appropriate penalties.

7. During practical training all students should maintain a day-to-day record of their work and observations in the prescribed Practical Diary Journal.

8. At the time of admission every student shall be required to sign a declaration. "I submit myself to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the Vice-Chancellor and the several authorities of the University, who may be vested with the authority to enforce discipline under the Act, the Statutes, the Ordinances and the rules that have been framed by the University."

Admission to the College implies acceptance by the student and by his/her parents/guardian of all provisions given in the College Prospectus, University Calender or any changes in the University/College rules, regulations, statutes, ordinances, examination schemes' syllabii, fees, etc. that may be made in future from time to time.

9. A student who has been admitted to the B.E. Course after passing the Senior School Certificate Examination or its equivalent, will have to clear the first Semester of the course within 2 years, failing which he will be required to discontinue the studies.

10. Every student will have to make over to the institution at his/her own cost, a typed copy of his/her project report/thesis/dissertation with illustrations as required for various University Examinations. This will remain the property of the Institution.
